SHOPPING FOR FAIRTRADE TEA? If you like to buy Fairtrade tea, make sure that it has the Fairtrade Mark on it. If a product like tea just says 'Fairly traded', there is no independent guarantee that the farmers will get a fair price and they will not be able to choose how their community uses the Fairtrade premium. If you are not happy that Sainsbury's have ditched the Fairtrade mark on their tea, please tell them by writing to your local store, or sign the petition at change.org (Search for 'Fairtrade' and find the petition started by Barbara Gwinnett of Tettenhall). As Fairtrade Churches, we should let people know about this. More information from David Fulljames (425710, david@fulljames.net).
