You'll be sure of a warm welcome whichever you one choose.

Broken

The TV series, Broken, written by Jimmy McGovern and starring Sean Bean is set in an estate parish somewhere in the UK. The series focuses on the life and ministry Father Michael Kerrigan, a Roman Catholic priest who, despite past trauma and anxiety about his own inadequacies, attempts to bring the light of Christ into the lives of the people amongst whom he ministers. The series portrays real life at its most gritty and unvarnished, and in doing so raises many questions about how to live faithfully when life is very hard.

This series is not for the faint-hearted, it contains disturbing and challenging story-lines, lots of swearing, and some violence. It's 15 rated, but is wonderfully written and acted and raises important questions of faith and life

The Lent Course based on the series is written by well-known and respected Biblical Scholar Canon Dr. Paula Gooder.

Whole Life Worship

Five studies for small groups exploring the connections between worship and every day life. It's produced by the London Institute for Contemporary Christianity, who say: 'We have a dream that every Christian would go out into their bit of God's world confident that God can work through them, confident that Jesus is good news for the people they meet, good news for the things they do, good news for the organisations they engage in.' That confidence grows out of worship that engages the whole of our lives.
