SUPPORT FOR THE HOMELESS IN OUR CITY: A letter has been received from Ann Reaney from the charity "Good Shepherd Relief in Need" expressing sincere thanks to our congregation for the two major deliveries of a variety of clothing and household items which will be distributed to the homeless in our city. Ann has said in the letter that there is an urgent need for boys and girls clothing particularly between the ages of 5 to 10years of age therefore if you can help with this appeal it would be greatly appreciated. The need for clothing, household items such as crockery, cooking utensils, cutlery, curtains and furniture particularly beds and wardrobes continues. Larger items can be collected from your home by calling Ann on her mobile 07845003656. Bless you all for this marvellous support for those less fortunate than ourselves.
