

Prayers for Trinity Sunday

Holy God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, Creator, Redeemer and Comforter, Three in One and One in Three. We turn to you now in prayer.

Here in this place and at this time, we offer our thanks. The words of our mouths, the thoughts in our minds, the feelings of our hearts. In awe we thank you for all that you have given to us, and all that you accomplish through us and even despite us.

For the blessing of your endless and enduring love: we thank you.
Commission us and all your Church to go and make disciples of all nations, through our prayers, words and actions.

For the blessing of gathering and community: we thank you.
Hear our prayers for those still on the outside and living in isolation. Help us to share your message of good news, so that all may come to understand that you are with them always, to the end of the age.

For the blessing of imagination and inspiration: we thank you.
Hear our prayers for those whose minds are closed down and whose lives are listless. Open all our minds to the wonders of your grace and the power of your Spirit at work within us.

For the blessing of peace: we thank you.
Hear our prayers for those who are suffering as a result of war, conflict, violence and oppression. Help our world's leaders to work together, to strive for peace, to champion justice and to support all who need it.

For the blessing of creation: we thank you.
Hear our prayers for all who organisations which are encouraging, supporting and developing sustainable ways of living which protect our scarce resources. Help us to learn from the lockdown the ways in which we can help protect our planet.

For the blessing of joy and good health: we thank you.
Hear our prayers for those living with sadness and struggling with pain and frailty. We pray for those affected by the Coronavirus and we bring to mind all those known to us who are ill at this time.

For the promise of eternal life: we thank you.
Hear our prayers for those who have died and those who mourn their passing. Hold them in your loving care.

Threefold God, we pray that you will continue to bless our world, our nation, our community, our homes, our workplaces and our Church. Distinct yet united; diverse yet interwoven; call us and call all your people, into the communion of your love, where each is named and known.

This we pray in the love of the Father, the healing of the Son, and the comfort of the Holy Spirit. Amen
