Dear Friends,

I hope you're keeping well, and don't mind getting two letters from me in one week!

I trust you've had time to digest the back-to-church arrangements and to make a decision about whether you should come at this time. I do appreciate that those who are shielding will not be able to do so, and it may well be too soon for many others as well. If you do have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact myself or the Wardens.

This week's service for home use is exactly the same as what we will be doing in both churches. Rev Carol has written and recorded her sermon. The readings from Ben and Josh and intercessions from Samantha have also been recorded to be viewed as part of the service online or by DVD, as well as in church. Thank you to them all.

Readings Romans 8: 1-11 Matthew 13: 1-9, 18-23

Collect *Almighty God, send down upon your church the riches of your Spirit, and kindle in all who minister the gospel your countless gifts of grace;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.*

One other thing: an appeal to younger people (ie under 70) who do not have underlying health issues. If you're coming to church and be willing to help out, for example in meeting and greeting, or in cleaning after the service, please let me or one of the Church Wardens know. It would be much appreciated.

With every blessing for the week ahead,

Phil
